

I want to choose my own ISP. I resent the idea of someone telling me which ISP I use, based on my address. I am totally satisfied with my current ISP, and DO NOT wish to use another. This sounds like another example of the government telling they citizens of the United States of America what they can and cannot do. Turn down the petition.